99.	The Cuban government recently detained Arcel and Maria Cardosa, two Cubans from Miami, while they were visiting family in Cuba. According to the Miami Herald, the Cuban government charged them with espionage for allegedly finding an anti-Castro letter on Maria as she tried to board a flight back to Miami. The Cuban government allowed the couple's two teenage daughters to return to Miami, but continue to hold Arcel and Maria in custody. The Herald also quoted a State Department official who stated that the US government cannot get involved because the Cardosas are US residents but not US citizens. Based on this information do you agree or disagree with the following statement? [READ STATEMENT] (IF CHOICE) Would you say you strongly (AGREE/DISAGREE) with this statement or only somewhat so?
